Access to Medical Records, and Data Protection

CCTV Images.

- Images will not be retained longer than is considered necessary and will then be deleted.
- All images will be held securely, and all access requests, and access to images will be documented.
- Images may record individuals and / or record incidents. Not all recordings are designed to identify persons.
- Other than in accordance with statutory rights, the release or availability of images will be at the discretion of the Dr G Kugapala and Practice Manager, who are Data Controllers for the purposes of the Data Protection Act.
- Images are held to improve the personal security of patients and staff whilst on the premises, and for the prevention and detection of crime, and images may be provided to police or other bodies.
- Where access is granted in response to an application received, the image may be edited to exclude images of third parties who may be also included within the requested image. This may be necessary to protect the identity of the third parties. In these circumstances the image released as part of the application may record / identify the "data subject" only.
- Images will be located by the Data Controller or authorised person.

When assessing the content of the image released the decision will be taken by the Data Controllers having due regard to the requirements of the Data Protection Act and Code of Conduct.

Access—Data Subject

The Data Protection Act 1998 (Section 7) specifies the rights of access of the Data Subject.

All requests for access must be in writing on a Access to Medical Records form which will be provided on request.

The form must be fully completed.

A response will be provided as soon as possible, and in any event within 21 days. Where an application is declined, a reason will be given. In some circumstances, some parts of your record may be withheld.

Provision of Information to Third Parties

The practice may share your personal information with other NHS organisations where this is appropriate for your healthcare.

In other circumstances we may approach you for specific consent to release personal information to third parties.

Information will not be released to other family members without written patient consent or without power of attorney for health.

In some circumstances there are statutory or ethical obligations to disclose information to others (such as public health issues) which may not require your consent, however you may be consulted about these in advance.

All staff have access to your medical and personal details which is required in relation to their roles, and have completed confidentiality agreements.

Complaints

These must be in writing and addressed to the Practice Manager.

Where the complaint is by a third party, and the complaint or enquiry related to someone else, the written consent of the Data Subject is required. Where this is not possible full justification must be given.

All complaints will be acknowledged within 14 days, and a response provided within 21 days.
